Summer Partying Tips

Summer is here! And we are so glad about it. The pools are open, the clubs are hopping and just about every major celebrity is preparing to make a Las Vegas appearance. Now you are probably wondering where to begin your weekend of adult revelry. That is where Red Carpet VIP comes in. Check out the concert schedule below and contact us for more information to see what weekend works best for you.

1. Be Prepared for the Heat!

We realize that most places do not average 90-100 degrees in June, but you are not in most places. This is Vegas, baby! If you plan on taking in some pool parties, sunblock is a must-have. Skin burns faster around water because water's reflection intensifies the sun's rays. Use a water-proof sunblock and reapply throughout the day to keep your skin safe. Another Vegas pool partying snafu is forgetting to hydrate properly. Alcohol dehydrates the body faster especially when you're sweating. Sun stroke or other heat related complications will definitely ruin your vacation so plan accordingly.

2. Dress Appropriately

Ladies, we know its standard attire to wear 3 inch stilettos in Sin City but even the most fashionable diva must be sensible. Heels are great at the club but the added obstacle of wet surfaces make some heels a safety hazard at the pool. We don't want any "fall on your face" moments, no matter how funny they are. Fellas, the next one is for you. Las Vegas is the pinnacle of glitz and glamour, so why do you think they are going to let you into the club with gymshoes and a white tee! Dress code is strictly enforced at every Las Vegas nightclub. Dress to impress should be your motto when hitting the scene.

3. Have Fun

We realize that this one seems like a no-brainer but you would be surprised how many people are wound too tight when you're out trying to have a good time. It's going to be crowded, someone is going to bump you, you may get splashed at the pool and needless to say not everyone can handle their liquor. The bottom line is this: everybody is out trying to have fun. So don't make a mountain out of a molehill and laugh-off minor offenses. Bouncers, security and the police don't play games here so it's better to err on the side of caution than to get rowdy over something small.

Inside Vegas' Best Pools

ENCORE BEACH CLUB at the Encore Hotel

Red Carpet VIP's pick for BEST POOL PARTY is at Steve Wynn's Encore Hotel. 60,000 square feet, three tiered pools, daybeds / lily pads on and off the water, eight bungalows with private hot tubs, bathrooms, showers and even temperature control settings helps make Encore Beach Club the most sought after of all the pool parties. Encore Beach Club also houses full blackjack and craps tables so when you need a break from the sun, you can try your luck in the shaded gaming area. But at the end of the day, what makes Encore Beach Club is its awesome sound system. Every Sunday throughout the summer, Kaskade performs for an afternoon you and your group will never forget!

REHAB at the Hard Rock Hotel

Once in you'll be greeted by a party wilder than the Cancun coast during spring break. Selected by the Travel Channel as one of the top ten pools in the world, the Hard Rock pool has all the prerequisites of a little slice of paradise: water, sand, palm trees, a waterslide, swim-up blackjack, cocktails, fully-equipped cabanas, a dance floor, DJs and of course, plenty of sizzling flesh exposed in all its tanned and toned glory. Oh, the things that you'll see at the Hard Rock pool! If and when you gain entry, order some Rock Star lemonades, check out the tattoos and T & A and cross it off your list of things to do before you die.

WET REPUBLIC at the MGM Hotel

Opened with a bang in summer 2008, MGM's ultra pool provides the perfect place to play all day before you carouse all night. The 50,000 square foot poolscape introduces us to the concept of "daylife," a delectable fusion of the good life, good times and perennial summertime pleasures. In other words Wet Republic provides the ultimate nightclub experience only poolside and all day long. Instead of cocktail servers there are models that happen to serve cocktails, instead of striped umbrellas, Wet Republic brags 10 shaded cabanas, including six VIP bungalows that come with amenities like HD plasma screen TVs, WiFi access and Xbox 360s. DJs are dedicated to keeping the party lively, and two large saltwater dipping pools offer an appealing place to relax, see and be seen. Use your towel to stake your claim in this glorious new land, a republic founded on the principle of seizing the day and partying like it's 2 a.m. when it's noontime and hotter than hell.

TAO BEACH POOL Party at Venetian Hotel

TAO Beach at The Venetian transports visitors to an exotic Balinese escape when it opens for the 2011 season. Upgrades and enhancements mark the outdoor oasis' fifth year in Las Vegas, with five new exclusive cabanas, additional day beds for lounging and lush horticulture, including forty foot tall bamboo trees highlighting the day to night venue. This year an even greater emphasis will be placed on the music that fuels the party, with the DJ booth taking center stage as a platform for world-renowned DJ talent. Tao beach takes exclusivity to a whole new level – the fourth to be exact. Although management has discontinued the topless optional policy that packed the pool deck two summers ago, Tao Beach is still full of poolside fun only this year you have to have your top on.

Meet Lisa

Lisa and her girlfriends have been planning this trip to Las Vegas for 4 weeks. She found out where all the hottest pools and clubs are. One of her friends told her to contact Red Carpet VIP to arrange her club/pool entries but Lisa decided that putting their names on the guest list would be more cost-effective. Unfortunately, Lisa did not realize that the guestlist in Vegas simply means standing in a line as long as the general admission line. Now Lisa has been in the guestlist line for 1 hour, her girls are fuming and they are missing the live performance they came to see. Better luck next time Lisa, you should have listened to your friend and booked with Red Carpet VIP.

Red Carpet VIP Clients Speak

"Just wanted to say thank you for the 1st class service and extreme punctuality with Gary and Jeremy this past weekend at XS. Being super skeptical on how all this works, I took a shot and BOY DID IT PAY OFF. Well worth the price and it REALLY helps you get into the club with NO

WAIT at all. From the time I met Gary out front to the time in the door was less than 3 minutes. And the line was wrapped all the way around the hotel. NO THANKS! Anyone questioning if they should use VIP on a busy weekend night, question no more! USE THEM NOW! The service was so fast, I got a drink at the bar in the hotel, and by the time I got to XS, I didn't even have time to finish my drink because we were being escorted in the club! THAT'S FAST! Take care and see Jeremy and Gary soon!"
