#91. Check out the Ferraris at the Wynn

Walking through a hotel you are probably not expecting to find a car dealership. But the Wynn is not your average hotel and Ferraris are most certainly not your average car. Window shopping is encouraged here, but it will cost you. This dealership doubles as a Ferrari museum allowing you to walk through and check out the cars for a fee. Are you the proud owner of a Ferrari of your own? Flash your keys and get free admission!

If buying a $100,000 and up Ferrari happens to not be in your budget, you could always pick up some slick Ferrari gear at the store right next to the dealership. From paperweights to model cars and Ferrari clothes, you can stock up here and save a few bucks. You could always pick up the car on your next trip right?
