

The Most Controversial Fight In History

What began as a talk for a fight many perceived as impossible between a boxing legend and the biggest star in mixed martial arts is now a reality. Former pound-for-pound king and five-division world champion Floyd Mayweather Jr. made the official announcement on social media Wednesday, confirming that he will exit a 23-month retirement at age 40 to face Conor McGregor, the UFC superstar, in a boxing match on Aug. 26 in Las Vegas. This is your chance to plan ahead and not get stuck behind long event lines during this sold out week in Las Vegas.

■

Give us a call for a stress free quote today
International: 702-997-7947 | Toll Free: 888-847-6483